I. READING COMPREHENSION (6 marks)

READ THE TEXT THEN ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

There is a special day about caring that you may not know! Every year, on 7th June, World Caring Day is celebrated. So, a few days ago the health club teacher in our school decided to organize a visit to the children's hospital.

Everyone was excited. Most students bought toys and storybooks for sick kids. Adam had an idea for a special hand-made present. To express love and care, he made colourful bracelets. They were really beautiful.

On the big day, the club mates did a clown show that made everyone laugh. Then, they offered their gifts to the sick children. When Adam gave a bracelet to a little girl, she looked thrilled and said, "thank you for this wonderful day." Adam and his friends learned that even small acts of care can make a difference.
